Albert William H. Elliot

February 10, 1939 – October 5, 2025

With hearts full of gratitude for a life well lived, we celebrate the homegoing of Albert William H. Elliot, who was born on February 10, 1939, in Barbados, West Indies, and peacefully entered eternal rest on October 5, 2025. He made his home in Christiansted, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, where his presence brought warmth, wisdom, and joy to all who knew him.

Albert's life was one of strength, faith, and purpose. His gentle spirit, steady guidance, and unwavering kindness touched the lives of many. He will be remembered not with sorrow, but with gratitude — for the love he shared, the laughter he inspired, and the example of faith and perseverance he leaves behind.

To his family and friends: may you find peace in knowing that his journey continues in the presence of the Lord, and comfort in the beautiful legacy he leaves in your hearts.

We invite you to share your thoughts, memories, or light a candle in his honor. Your words of comfort mean so much to his family during this time.

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” —
2 Timothy 4:7
