“ Janis and Sadaria it is with my deepest sympathy that I express sorrow for your loss. The first memory Ms.Drummonds was at games shouting out support for you and your team. As our friendship grew through the years she was always a constant support of whatever you were doing. There wasnâ€™t a mountain she wouldnâ€™t move for you and Sadaria. Ms Drummonds friendship with my mom grew over the years as well. They were avid Heat supporters and would talk on the phone until the games were over. She was always kind and loving to me and would often tell me I was like a sister to Janis. That always made me smile.

“ Sincere condolences to Ms. Alva's family. I did not know her as well as others, but I do know the wonderful and kind daughter she raised. Janis, all the loving characteristics of your mother will live on through you. You are her source of pride, joy, and love. Thinking of you and praying for God's grace to cover you during this time. So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy. John 16:22

“ *To a Beautiful, talented singer, she would always remind me of the beautiful songs that she sing in the choir. She was definitely a always dedicated Christian woman who loved her church, who love her choir, who love music, and she would always not let me forget the music that brought that church through, I am eternally grateful for the video that she shared with me over the years of her singing in the choir concert.
