Anthony King “Jaiiceon” Brown

November 27, 2015 – June 18, 2025

With profound sadness and tender remembrance, we announce the passing of Anthony King “Jaiiceon” Brown on June 18, 2025. Born in Freeport, Grand Bahama, and a bright light in the Opa-Locka, Florida community, Jaiiceon touched more lives in his short years than many do in a lifetime.

His presence radiated joy—his laughter was contagious, his hugs healing, and his smile lit up every room he entered. Jaiiceon’s spirit was full of wonder, curiosity, and love. He was deeply cherished by his family, friends, and all who were blessed to know him.

Though we cannot understand why his time here was so brief, we hold close the precious memories he gave us. His legacy lives on in every heart he touched and in the love that will never fade.

His final rites are entrusted to Serenity Funeral Home and Crematorium in Nassau, Bahamas.

We welcome you to share a memory, light a candle, or leave a message in Jaiiceon’s honor. Your words of comfort are a great source of strength for his loved ones during this time.

To his family and friends: we know there are no words that can ease this kind of pain, but we pray these bring a small measure of peace.

Jaiiceon may no longer be in our arms, but he is forever in our hearts. In the stillness of sorrow, may you feel the warmth of his spirit, and in the quiet moments, hear the soft echoes of his laughter.

“He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge.”
— Psalm 91:4
