“ Dear Audrey Mckenzie. You came into this world two months before i do. You live your life like a candle in the wind never, fail when the wind and the rain came. You live your dream on your terms, never retreating from a challenge but never plunging into uncertain situation. God sent you here to serve the human race in the field of education and health services. My son and I will never foget your kindness to us in the time of his illness. In this sense you were a true angel. So earth lost an angel and heaven has gained one. You are gone too soon .RIP with Jesus. Audrey.

“ Ms Audrey - I am glad you were my mom's nurse and it was a pleasure to have met you. You always made sure that she was comfortable, eating and chatting with her. Even when she was not your patient you would still check on her to make sure she was ok. PGH will not be the same. I will miss your smile, laughter and signing. I will miss you correcting someone saying from where I come from you address me as Ms. Audrey and that's what you told me the first day we met. Good bye. Rip.
