

Boysie "BJ" Jordan

November 28, 1928 - June 3, 2024

Boysie "BJ" Jordan passed on June 3, 2024. He was a retired City of Hallandale Beach, Police Officer. Boysie "B.J." Jordan was born in 1928, in Albany, GA. He moved to Dania, FL. in 1948 with his sister. He was working as a porter in Sunny Isles Beach when someone suggested that he join the Hallandale Police Auxiliary. Jordan had dreamed of being a motorcycle cop as a child growing up in Albany. He learned to his surprise that the position was an unpaid one. For six months, he rode with a sworn officer for four hours a night. At the time, there were 17 police employees in Hallandale September of 1961. Jordan brought home $150 a paycheck every two weeks.

Jordan was a black police officer in the days before the civil rights movement. Jordan saw his fair share of private prejudice along with the inherent danger of his chosen profession. It was often a difficult job to do upholding the law, while turning a deaf ear to the bigotry of the very citizens he was sworn to protect.

History was made in 1970 when Jordan became the first black K-9 officer in Broward County. He also is responsible for starting the Police Honor Guard ancillary unit for Hallandale Police Department.

For more than 30 years, he worked through six police chiefs and an acting chief, made thousands of arrests; has shot a man and been shot at, crashed three police cars, and closed the eyes fellow officer Austin Hepburn, Jr. who was killed in the line of duty.

"B.J. Jordan is a history book of Hallandale" quoted by the then Police Chief Kenneth Wagner. His personnel file is filled with commendations and letters of appreciation from residents he has helped over the years. His supervisors described him as compassionate, reliable and dedicated.

Please leave the family a note of condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral tribute for the service.

Be Comforted By These Words:

When peace like a river attendeth my way,

And sorrows like sea billows roll,

Whatever my lot thou has taught me to say,

It Is Well, It Is Well With My Soul.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. I first met "BJ" as he was affectionly known, when I was hired to the Hallandale Police Dept., back in 1973. In my early years I rode with Officer Jordan on patrol, throughout the Nortwest portion of the City. BJ was a respected officer in the community and City. I loved listening to the stories from past years, and his mentorship of how to work "the streets," and stay safe. When I became Chief, BJ was one of the first to congratulate me to my new position. BJ was a man you could always depend on, and come to for advice. I believe BJ lived a full life, respected by all, and will be sorely missed. May God open the doors of heaven and welcome BJ with open arms. God bless. Sincerely, Larry Faragher

“ I am so saddened by the passing of BJ, but so happy he had a long life. I loved working with him, he shared his experiences and advice. I was a young female officer, the third in the city and still a novelty. I always remembered how fair he treated me and probably understood the challenges better than most. My condolences to his family and loved ones. ὀΨ'τΜâ πῆ_ὀΨ'" He was always be remembered.
