And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. John 14 1-4

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. The Bible assures us Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. May these words bring you both comfort and strength during this difficult time.

“ If we are lucky, sometime during the course of our life, we would have met someone with the ability to leave a big imprint on our heart. Calvin was such a person. Once you meet him, you never forget him. We had only known Calvin for a short eight years. However, he always made me and my wife feel so welcome it was as if he had known us all of his life. Calvin was a kind man; a generous man; a humble man. We will miss you Calvin! May you rest in peace!Ron and Jackie

“ From my childhood to this day, and I imagine to my last day, Tío Calvin has been and will remain a singularly unique inspiration in my life. He is, amongst the constellation of lights that have illuminated my path through life to this day, one of the very first and brightest. I feel honored and blessed to have had him in my my life, privileged to have had him meet and know my wife and children, and especially blessed to have been able to reconnect and enjoy his company in recent years. The memories...his inspiration...these for me are gifts I cherish now and always. I love you Tio Calvin, and I will miss you.
