

Carole Hayes Pratt

August 31, 1937 - July 2, 2020

Carole Hayes Pratt Passed on July 2, 2020. The Services have been rescheduled.

ATTENTION: Due to the COVID- 19 virus pandemic and in the effort to help stop the spread of the Virus. Face masks must be worn at all times while in the Funeral Home. We can only allow a certain number of individuals inside the funeral home at one time. Please, remember to keep your distance as much as possible, and wash and sanitize your hands. Thank you for your cooperation and with helping us to do our part in stopping the spread of the Virus.

Please leave the Family a note of Condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral remembrance piece. Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whether I go ye know, and the way ye know. John

“ Aunt Carole's memories are held deep within my heart. The sheltered memories of her smile, laughter, periods of her protection and comfort growing up on Edfield in Sunnyside when my mom was sick for a couple of years. Aunt Carole's life style and witness relied on her faith, prayers and obedience in her walk with Jesus Christ. I remember many prayers and miracles witnessed as a child and adult. We have come to the time and season when my memories are bonded deep within my heart and the hearts of her neices and nephews and all who have known her, now strengthen and comfort us when it has come time to part. Much love and prayers to the Hayes and Pratt family. Lois Hayes

“ Rest in Paradise Auntie Carole. Spending summers with you, Uncle Earnest, and all of my cousins are irreplaceable memories that will never be forgotten. Thank you for all the life lessons, most importantly for the example you set as a Christian mother and wife. Thank you for being a role model. To my cousins, thank you all for the genuine love that you have always shown our family. We love you guys dearly, and your time of bereavement is shared through the entire family. Your tears are not shed alone. We love you guys dearly and pray for your continued strength within the Lord. Love always, your cousin Rhonda Griffin & Mr and Mrs Trey Stapleton (Nikki) and the kids.
