

Carrie Black Gray

January 11, 1950 - January 29, 2025

Carrie Black Gray passed away on January 29, 2025. She was born in Bishopville, South Carolina and made her home in Miami, Florida. She worked for Miami Dade County Public School System as a Transportation Aide. She will surely be missed by her family, co-workers, friends, and all who had the opportunity to share in her life.

Please keep the family in your thoughts and prayers during this time of bereavement. Additionally, you can support the family by leaving a note of condolence, sharing a memory, lighting a candle of remembrance, or sending flowers for the service.

May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.

John 14:27

“ I was raised in an era where the village helped raise the children. Where any neighbor could speak to or discipline you without any issues. They also encouraged you. I am very fortunate that Ms. Gray did more encouraging than disciplining when it came to me. My neighbor, Ms. Gray, encouraged the love of family. She said she was happy that my mom and aunt were in the same home because some family members don't talk. I know Ms. Gray loved her family and they loved her back. The service and attention to details is evident that they loved her to the heavens and beyond. I'll miss waving to you and occasionally talking about "family". Take your rest.

“ I vividly remember on a visit to S.C.. Me, mom, & kids being invited to my Aunt Mae house and was greeted by my Aunt Carrie for dinner. Turkey wings, greens, Mac n cheese, and so much more~even peach cobbler for dessert that was all prepared from scratch by Aunt Carrie. That meal was sooo great and so delicious that- when I got back home to St. Louis I wrote my Aunts a letter expressing my love and gratitude for the tasteful experience and how wonderful it was just being in their presence!! That meal was sooo delicious, we still think about it and talk about it to this day!! Aunt Carrie will be greatly missed!!! ~~Zee.

“ Momma, I called you when I first met you and auntie Arb. We had fun, laughing you auntie Arb telling jokes. I was the youngest in the crowd (over 50). We decided we were not going to walk any further. They both shared their food with me and told me stories about life. I would ask Lynn how they was doing she would tell me all right. Momma had a love spirit that you could not do anything but smile with her. My heart goes out to Lynn and Momma Carrie family with my deepest sympathy. 🙏🙏

“ My sincerest condolences to you and your family Carolyn. I have only had the opportunity to meet your mom once. However, I feel like I know her. You always, always spoke of your mom and by the photos it appears you were very close to her and you did a lot of activities together. Although she is no longer here physically, she will always be in your heart. She is now flying with the angels. It is my wish that you are able to get through this time with God's help as well as your family and friends. Lots of love to you.
