Please Leave the Family a note of Condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral remembrance piece. Let not let your heart be trouble. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:1-3...

“ Expressions of sympathy for the death of your loved one. Death's pain are hard, heavy and sad days are ahead...(Job 10:1). At the end of a tunnel there is always light. That light is from our creator. Isaiah 25:8, points to the removal of death forever. Revelation 21:3-4 says.. "No more death". John 5:28-29 assures us of the resurrection of our loved ones. Psalm 37: 9-11 gives us a different hope, notice righteous mankind including those who have died will live on a restored and peaceful earth. So behold a bright and beautiful light at the end of the tunnel! The information at this website has helped during times of sorrow. “ To Bettye and the whole family, my prayers are with you All. God did not promise that tge road would be easy. No but what He did promise to never leave us or forsake us. Let's not start leaning to our own understanding. But let us continue to trust in the Lord. Let's put a Praise on it! Love you all.
