“ Sis Cheryl Lacey was a Christian example of God Is Love. She never succumbed to a stranger always leaving that meet up with a new friend. We shared a common family member on different sides and Cheryl would always call me cousin knowing me first as a member of new birth then once she found out it was always hey cousin. She was warm and welcoming and as a black women she was fierce and a great role model, inspiring, looking at Cheryl's life walk made me know I can accomplish anything as a black woman ðŸ’ always dressed modest and well groomed. Thank you Cheryl for your ministry I know you got some of them rubies, emeralds and precious stones in your crown .. Congrats and your rewards.. see you when I get there. God bless the family and may He comfort this family with the comfort that only He can give. - Pastor Delicia Batten-Jean

“ I attended high school with Cheryl Carter Lacey at Miami Central Senior High School, where she was a member of the "Rocket" marching band. She was congenial and beautiful, as well. May her family be comforted, and may she rest, peacefully.

“ I met Cheryl years ago when I joined New Birth! She is and will always be a pillar of NBBC! Her jokes, laughter, and voice will all be missed! She was my Soror and known as Auntie Cheryl to my daughter! She is in a far better place than we are and will definitely be missed! She is Safe in His Arms! ðŸ”â ðŸ

“ Cheryl and I attended Junior Highschool-Horace Mann, Elportal, Florida. We also sang together in a number of Music Ministries at Mt. Carmel Baptist and New Birth Baptist Church-to include Curry Special Ensemble, Voices of Victory. Cheryl possessed an unmatched voice. Cheryl learned of my talents in sewing and design and asked me to assist her and Florida Memorial University with their coronation. I was honored that Cheryl asked me and allowed me to display my talent, which included making purple gowns for the young ladies/participants ðŸœ You are missed, Cheryl. Enjoy heaven; as you sing with the Angels in glory.
