“ Our condolences to the family. We are just learning of his death. DIXON as we called him was a very old friend of our my father and mother when he was a very young man moving into the Carver Ranches community. I was a teenager and became acquainted with his younger brother who I claimed as my brother, Johnny Mack. Since my Dad has been living with me and disabled Dixon would come by to visit with him. But since the Covid pandemic we had not seen him. He was very good to my parents back in the day. May the Grace of God bless and keep you
