

Clarence Lee Day

December 14, 1938 - May 14, 2020

Clarence Lee Day passed on May 14. Due to the Covid - 19 Restrictions the Family has requested that everyone please watch the services from the live stream link that will be posted by the funeral home. This is to maintain everyone's safety and adhering to federally regulated social distancing guidelines. The Day Family Thanks Everyone in advance for their cooperation, Prayers and Support.

Please leave the Family a note of Condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral remembrance piece. Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whether I go ye know, and the way ye know. John 14:1-4

“ I remember staying with my big brother Clarence in my younger years. Staying with Him one summer and connecting with His children that was my age and it felt like a family of my dreams. It felt like a father and mother and security of a family unit. I never felt that before or since as a child. He gave me an ever lasting life gift in this. I am grateful that he accepted me as I was and gave love in his house and with His family. I am grateful for Charles, Jeanette, and Michael and their mother for loving me and accepting me. And more over letting me feel and experience family closeness as a child. Always in my heart brother, rest in peace.

“ May we cherish and hold on to the memories we had for there are no words that can express how we appear. Only GOD and time can heal the pain that we feel. “He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.” (Psalm 147:3) Love MacArthur Day and Family
