January 6, 1958 - May 11, 2025

Clarence L. Williams

January 6, 1958 – May 11, 2025

With deep respect and remembrance, we announce the passing of Clarence L. Williams on May 11, 2025. Born in Williamsburg, South Carolina, and a resident of West Park, Florida, Clarence dedicated his life to hard work and service, spending his career as a dependable and skilled maintenance worker.

He was known for his steady presence, practical hands, and quiet strength. His contributions, both on the job and in the lives of those around him, will be remembered with gratitude.

We invite you to share your thoughts, memories, or light a candle in Clarence's honor by clicking the link below. Your words of comfort mean so much to his family during this time.

To the family and friends of Clarence L. Williams, we offer these words with the hope that they bring peace and strength during this time of loss.

Though he is no longer with us, the work of his hands and the impact of his life remain. May you find comfort in knowing that even in quiet service, his life made a lasting difference.

“God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.” — Psalm
46:1

“ If I had to choose a word to describe my uncle Clarence, it would be 'always there.' No matter the distance, he'd come through, whether to fix a car or lend a helping hand. He was the best mechanic I've ever met, and his dedication to his family was unwavering, in sickness and in health. I wish we could take one more ride to the auto shop together. Uncle Clarence, I love you and will miss you dearly.
