Please keep the family in your thoughts and prayers during this time of bereavement. Additionally, you can support the family by leaving a note of condolence, sharing a memory, lighting a candle of remembrance, or ordering a floral arrangement for the service.

May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

John 14:1-3 King James Version

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

“ Ma, I never thought that I'd be saying goodbye. From getting my eye super glued as baby and you caring for me, I remember you throwing the "stop it" doll up in the air which was so funny. You were my hair stylist, my protector, my auntie and most importantly my second mom. I am in disbelief but I trust God's timing. What gives me comfort is knowing that you are finally with your baby sister again ~ Cynthia (my mommy) I love you forever ?Sharli
