“ There are no words to describe how I am feeling at this moment. Curtis was the oldest living member of our family, and if you ever met him, you would never forget him. I am so grateful for his presence in my life and all the good times we shared. He shared so many family stories and I learned so much from him about our family history. He would have me laughing for hours. My mom and Curtis were raised in the same home at some point in their lives and he has been in my life since birth. I will truly miss driving by his home and not seeing him sitting on that porch and making that quick stop and just sitting there listening to him go on and on about everything, including lovingly putting me in my place (smile). If you knew him, then you knew he did not mind setting you straight (smile). However, I knew that he had nothing but love for me, therefore it would only make me laugh. Today my heart is very heavy and it will be that way for sometime, but I also know that God gave him 98 beautiful years before he decided to take him from this earth. Therefore, I say thank you Lord! Cousin Curtis, you will always be in my heart and I will miss spending time with you. Sleep in peace and know that I will always love you.
