“ I recall with pleasure his brief visit to Vancouver all too many years ago. We got to spend some precious time together. During his short stay his buoyant personality attracted all those who came into contact with David. Such indeed was his winsome presence

“ My heartfelt condolences to Elizabeth, Nichola and Ricardo on the death of your dad. Uncle David was someone who played pranks on us and made us laugh always. We always had fun times. What death teaches us all is that one day too we will have to depart this life here on earth. I pray that his wife and the rest of his family will be consoled and have Faith and Courage knowing that your beloved David is with his Lord and Saviour. May his soul RIP. 🙏🙏🙏

“ In the first years of marriage to David's beloved first daughter, I can remember his live for each of his children. While he and I worked on rebuilding a Pontiac Firebird and transforming it into a beautiful Trans Am like Smokey and the Bandit, only better because it was showroom competition ready, we would always talk about the live for his family and his regrets. Everyone of his children were his treasured jewels. He loved them so greatly. Even if they made a bad decision in life he was determined to live them more to help them recover and be the beautiful jewels he continually treasured. David was a great friend to me and I truly appreciated our talks. Then came the Grand Children. I never thought I could see such joy escalate even higher. His prize jewels were amplified even more through their own growth mentally and physically. He gained greater jewels to treasure through his Grand Children. Continue to make my wonderful friend Scraggy... Bamabi 5, proud. Live to the excellence he envisioned in you all. May YAH and our Beloved Messiah Bless you all in your loss, comfort you and keep you throughout your lives and your time of grief.Â Blessings and Shalom.
