

David Augustus Creary

March 25, 1952 - November 3, 2022

David Augustus Creary was born in Kingston Jamaica. He grew up in Portland and attended the Cascade School in Regale. Growing up he was curious, loyal and adventurous, always willing to drop everything to lend a helping hand which led him to Kingston where he found employment at the Racing Promotion Limited. He later migrated to the U.S. where he lived and worked for many years.

David was called home on November 3 , 2022 and with the same willingness dropped everything and hurried home. He may have left us physically but behind he left a legacy of kindness, compassion and laughter and we will keep on smiling in his honor.

David will be sadly missed by his three daughters :Narla, Charlene and Carolyn four sons: Garfield, Kirk, Dwayne and Christopher. Sisters: Mearline, Albertha , Christine, Rosalie and Beverley, eight grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My condolences to the family. I Met him twice but he was very given and kind . I remember my wife and I went to meet him . He had a box of Naseberry for us . I ask where he got them . He said from the tree in the neighborhood . He said they donâ€™t know the fruit and asked him what it taste like so he gave them a very green unripe one . They left him alone and he get to have all the naseberry he wants, lol . Rest In Peace my brother
