“ To My Dear Families: In a time like this, I am almost lost for words. My last brother in whom I love so dearly has gone to be with the Lord and I can’t physically be there for you all. I thank God that he was a true Servant of the Lord and for God. Family, remember there is no time frame or how to grieve. No two individuals grieves the same. Never go a moment without seeking the Lord daily continuously. Psalm 23 says The Lord is my Shepherd; and I shall not want ... John 14: 1-6 says, Let not your heart be trouble: ye believe in God, believe also in me....Psalm 5:...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. I extend my love, empathy and sympathy to you all. May You continue to find comfort in God’s Word. Love y’all, Sister’s Law, Auntie, Rev. Dr. Diane Thomas.

“ Condolences to the entire Walton family. Deacon Walton always reminded me to keep reading the Bible, I was actually sitting in my living room reading the Bible when I got the news of his transitioning. I would get off work 7AM to come to the church to do maintenance work and Deac will already be there! I’ve always known him to connect with all people. I have much much more to tell but I’ll stop here. To Sister Walton, Anthony, Jimmie and Colemena, love you.
