“ As cousins I always saw Deb as my sister, always enjoyed her company and could not have asked for a better cousin. She was always kind and loving. No matter the distance or the time away her love of family was always there. Always welcoming like no time had passed between us. I will always love her and I miss her dearly. I know now she is with family that have gone before her. Rest in peace cuz and I'll see u on the other side.

“ Debra and I grew up as cousins although there was no blood relationship, I always considered her my cousin. I remember when we were young 15 or 16, we were allowed to travel to the Bahamas alone for the very 1st time in our lives. We had an awesome time there with Aunt Lillian Rolle. I haven't seen Debra in over 20 years and was so much looking forward to see her. She in a much better place and God loved her. Rest in peace my sister .
