“ My loving grandma: mom to all, aunty to all, big sister to others, a place of refuge, listener, quick witted, light of the family/world, jazzy, classy, comforter, tone setter, homemaker, trooper, believer, teacher, prayer warrior, believer. She was an ally when I needed, caretaker when I needed her, friend when I needed her. She moved and did everything with love and with class. Most of all, she was just a super awesome Grandma to me. Spoiled me, loved me, and very instrumental to my cancer remission. I'm sure there is more that I'm leaving out, She gave so much of herself to everyone, but never seemed to run out, but that's just how great of a Grandmother she is to me. Love you Grandma.

“ Grandma Diana, I remember the time we spent together in Cleveland OH at restaurant eating breakfast and you looked at me with concern and stated you need to be careful about your health. And you asked Anthony and I an important question that would change both our lives for the future. We, Anthony and I said without any hesitation, yes and you know what that question was. I want you to know we still emphatically say yes. We will continue to make sure your beloved is taken care and the memory and love of you flows in him forever. Thank you for your influence and love instilled in your grandson. Because of you he his excellent husband to me. Thank you for loving and accepting me as your own. Grandma, I will miss you, heaven has returned its Angel. Love you grandma.

“ Diana, when the gates swing open, you'll walk right in with your unique and memorable SMILE. The tulip does not strive to impress anyone. It doesn't struggle to be different - it doesn't have to. It is different. And there's room in the garden for every flower. You did not have to struggle to make your smile different than anyone else's on earth - it just was. You were unique and beautiful because you were created that way. Love you, family. ”

“ Seasons- So honored ours last 15 plus years. You always provided a listening ear, and gentle words of wisdom, encouragement. Your nuggets were dropped everywhere and whom ever was grazing to find and soar in the Lord. Blessings.

“ Dianna was always the one who set the tone for everything that our Sunday school class did. She guided us through the scriptures and she walked her walk as a true woman of God. I will really miss her smile her nod of the head when she approved and that stern face when it might not be right. Always cherish her crossing my path. Sharon A.
