I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

“ Greetings! “Who can find a virtuous woman for her price is more precious than rubies” ! Proverbs 31:10 Mother Edith Foster was a champion for the cause of Christ for 90 years! Wow... I was so honored to have had her in my life! It was because of her and woman like my mother, Sylvia Campbell, that I became a minister of the gospel and a principal in the Broward County School system for 31 over years!!! Love you mom Foster and I will miss hearing your voice, seeing your smile, and hearing your laughter... however I will certainly be looking for YOU on that glad reunion day! Roger, Foster, Campbell family and others... stay strong and be good of encourage... as we continue to live out Mother Foster’s legacy with godly love and spiritual wisdom...

“ Yes, gone is her physical presence, gone is her smile and the sound of her voice. “ But Edith did not just leave you; she left you equipped. “ She was a warrior, and that spirit is in all of you. She led by example. “ She gave you all a reason to hope, by believing what she could not see. She taught you all how to have faith by remaining steadfast, even in the midst of trials; trusting God in spite of what it looked like. She prayed without ceasing because she believed not only that prayer changed things, “ but that her God was able. She fought on her knees because she understood the battle was not hers. All that she was is in each of you. The question that remains is, “Who will be the one to pick-up her mantle”? I love you family. My prayer is that the fond memories of your loved one will soothe your aching hearts in the minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, and years to come. My Deepest Sympathy...

“ Good Morning Ms. Foster, We prayed with so much assurance just knowing you would be ok. We would have a praise report and weâ€™d rejoice and once again youâ€™ll testify to the goodness of Jesus, but God said this time youâ€™ll rejoice with me and you said ok stepping into your heavenly shoes. I know youâ€™re Happy to see all your love ones gone on before thatâ€™s what you lived for a life to live again. When I learned you had transitioned my heart ðŸ™ broke. I shed so many tears we I miss you but Iâ€™m so happy to know you got your wings, no more pain, no more worries youâ€™re with our creator! You have always been an ANGEL, as many have said. When I would visit you, as I come to the door through the window I would hear your sweet voice â€œcome on inâ€ sit down always offering whatever was there at the time along with Trisha, sometimes the visit was meant to be a short one but hours later still there sitting at the table feeling so comfortable as if I was talking to my own mom. Always good words and a prayer ðŸ™ ðŸ½ to end the conversation, oh Ms. FOSTER I will miss you dearly. As we are, you once were. As you are we one day will be. So seek Godâ€™s face while he may be found so that we will be reunited in the presence of the almighty God. Sleep in Peace Mrs Foster, We love you but God loved ðŸ• you best. Sonya Campbell-Johnson

“ Aunt Edith lovingly welcomed me into my new family years ago. I will never forget her warm hugs & genuine caring for all her family. I enjoyed hearing her & her sisters tell stories about their pasts at holiday gatherings. I know she is happy & content with her Lord. Love and peace to all her family from ours.

“ ‘Œ’ The opportunity to meet this beautiful woman of GOD was after the birth of Maylene's third child Mr. BJ. Momma Foster was on watch at Marilyn's hospital bedside I ask if I may pray for Marilyn with reservation she said yes. So we began to pray. Then Momma would keep in her prayers and I would also be able to pray with her. What a prayer warrior! Momma Foster was a woman who cherished and loved her family. A woman of strength and beauty. You are missed hearts are broken, but I know you prayed for us to get on that narrow road to be with you one day. Thank you for the beautiful legacy you left us to follow. Take your rest. Love Tressa

“ To my loving Grandmother whom I affectionately called Mom, I can't believe the time has come for me to write a tribute. It has been said life is about the dash between 1930-2021. The visual size of the dash does not symbolize the extraordinary impact you had on my life. I am so proud to know my Mom was a believer of Christ and her actions and words always aligned. Mom thank you for loving me and showing me the way. You embodied strength, grace kindness and a love for family. We all hug and pray because of you. I am going to miss the wonderful discussions at the kitchen table. Many spiritual break throughs happened there. Thank you for praying instead of judging. Thank you for keeping us covered. I now must take a page of wisdom out of your book and accept my charge. If I can be half the matriach you were then I will be whole. Please continue to watch over us. I know you are singing all the praises and having a wonderful time with the Alpha and Omega! Until we meet again love, hugs and kisses!!!! Eternal Peace Shalida

“ Mrs. Edith it's so many things that I could say and still not say enough. You was such an inspiration too me. You encouraged me, you opened your home too me, you talked and laughed with me and you surely prayed with me. I have so many memories I can reflect on. My heart won't be the same. One thing I do know, you would tell me to keep going and keep praying. I thank God for putting you in my life. â ¤

“ Mother Foster was a Prayer Warrior. If you wanted to be Blessed, just call Mother Foster through her words of prayer and God your prayers surely would be answered. When you called her for prayer, she would not let you off the phone until she prayed for you. She prayed for me many times. Rest In Peace. Love Mamie

“ You were truly a gift from God, I thank God for choosing you as my Grandmother. You healed a wound that was in my heart for many years... You showed me what a family is all about and the love that comes with it. Even though you didn't get to raise me your prayers kept me and brought me back to you. I learned so many things about myself as I listen to you speak and how you saw and processed things I realized I had a lot of you in me that I didn't know. You were a powerful humble woman and I admired that in you, I wish we had so many more years together. I am truly going to miss you and I will always love you and never forget you. You were the most powerful woman that I ever known. Tell My Father that I love him and please keep interceding for me to the Father, I love you Grandma you were truly an angel to me.

“ Thinking and missing you. At times memories of you flash across my mind and it's difficult to come to face the reality that you have ascended on. I have never met such a warm, loving and caring woman. Your beautiful presence blessed everyone who came in contact with you. Such a genuine and meek spirit. Never passing judgment but always uplifting and reciting encouraging words. I would brag on how awesome you were and constantly remind John on how blessed he was to have such an amazing, God fearing grandmother. I adopted you, or should I say you adopted me, and I was able to feel your love and encounter a piece of Heaven here on earth. I was amazed at your wisdom and loved to hear your countless testimonies of the Goodness of God through your trials and tribulations. I definitely would look forward to visiting you and hated to leave. Grandma Edith you have blessed my soul and I will cherish your memory and your words forever. I Love you and Thank you for impacting my heart. Rest peacefully Queen.Â Your Granddaughter in Love Toya

“ She's one of the sweetest spirits you will ever meet. Imagine walking into a room on a bright, sunny morning like God has given on countless days. At the window facing the east, the warm rays of sun illuminates your face as it greets. It's her loving eyes and rosey cheeks, so humble and meek. Come in side and have a seat. How was your day she softly spoke. While touching your hand, she effortlessly speaks the words God's disciples had wrote. The scriptures would apply so accurately and true, touching the depths of your soul and heart. That you knew God had place her here purposely for you, from the very start. You eagerly sit back and listen carefully, because you know you're in the presence of an angel definitely. Following the scriptures, would be some words of wisdom. A strong minded, intelligent, powerful, God fearing lady. One who kept praying to her last breath saying... "I love you". Through it all, those were her last words and nothing more, then she close her eyes and God open his door. The Angel and Matriarch we all came to know, has claimed her place and rised toward the heavenly door. That ray of sun that continues to shine, will live with me forever, and always on my mind. Love, Ben.
