My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:1-3...

“ My deepest sympathies go out to your family. Losing a child in death is especially difficult, and no doubt your love for Elishia ran deep as she filled your life with much joy. One very special promise that God gives in his word the Bible, Elishia will benefit from fully. It's found in Isaiah 35:5,6 in part it states " At that time the lame will leap like the deer, and the tongue of the speechless will shout for joy." So here God promises that all the obstacles Elishia faced will be done away with and she can enjoy life to the fullest. I hope this may bring you a a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. We know that Shante is resting in the arms of the Lord & rejoicing with the angels. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. With ALL our love!

“ In speaking from experience, it's not easy for any parent to lay their child to rest. My deapest sympathy to the bereaved family. However, find some comfort in knowing the sweet spirit of our beloved Shante, she is prancing around Heaven socializing with the other delightful angels! RIP babygirl!!!
