“ Aunt Emma, We remember all the good times we had at your house on various occasions over the past 75 years. We thank you for loving us, caring for us, allowing us to stay over with Pat, Dot, and Reg and years later showing the vast expanse of your love by accepting not only us but our children into your Florida homes. Thanks for visiting us in Connecticut to let us know that through it all, we could always count on your acceptance and love. We will always miss you and we love you. We know God loves you too. Rest well, dear Aunt Emma!
