“ My condolences to my family. Cousin Spic was very dear to me. My mom and him along with his sister Gwen was more like siblings than cousins. Spic truly loved his family and we loved him dearly as well. The day before he passed I told him that I love him and his response was I love you too. When he would come and visit us in GA it was always a good time of laughter and love. Cousin Spic is going to truly be missed. We love you cuz but now you're resting in His arms. Love Kimkeisha, Oveada and your GA family.

“ Earnest "Spic" Smith III is my eldest brother. He passed away in Johnston, Rhode Island on Monday July 15. Missy, baby Courtney, and myself we flew up to be with him. He was so happy to see us and speak with his other family members and friends on the phone. Earnest loved his family and enjoyed spending time with watching football, eating good southern foods, talking about old times. He loved playing the lottery and gambling at the dog track. He actually was lucky and always shared his winnings with his family. Spic I love you brotherðŸ™ Rest. Peace be still
