I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

“ Essie worked at Toys R Us with me and my sister in law Wendy who she became very good friends with making her a very good friend to our family. She was full of laughter and always was quick at the tongue with a funny come back to any situation. Essie was in my wedding on September 13, 1986 and the last time I saw her she was working in Dunkin Donuts and my husband and I went in to get a coffee and to my surprise there she was the same jolly person full of fun and laughter. She didn't remember me but as soon as I said you were in my wedding a big smile appeared on her face and she said oh my goodness Carolyn & Zach and she came around and gave us big hugs we chit chatted for awhile and promised to keep in touch but we all felled to keep that promise and lost contact again until seeing her obituary in the Miami Times. Essie continue your rest in heaven we will always have a place in our heart for you. We will always love you and miss you. The Hamilton Family

“ This is a hard pill to swallow. I met auntie Essie through her sister Chenell we all worked together at Kiddie city. And when I tell you She kept me laughing no matter if I was down or upset she always had something special to say to me to turn my frown upside down. She had a heart of gold would give her last always and went that extra mile to help out. The kids adored her especially my two girls. She always had a world of encouragement whenever they faced any hard obstacle. The group texts we had between us three , the fun times we had on lunch and the family gatherings we all attended on your side of the family side as well as mine. It’s hard for me to accept this because everyday I go to work I look for you to walk in my room saying good morning my love how’s the girls. You will truly be missed heaven has gain a very special Angel your family and friends needed you but god needed you more. I say to you my friend like we always said to each other it’s never goodbye it’s see you later. To the family prayers and thoughts are with you guys I love you all and god bless. Love always Ms. Tasha, Tiara and Momo

“ I did not know Essie personally, but know her son Chris; if he was anything like his mom, I know that her spirit of love and kindness, will live on in him. Rest in eternal peace with God who is the Resurrection, and the Life. Continued prays for the family!
