“ Sis, I loved when sis would reminice and share fond memories of family. My dad and she were first cousins and she'd make sure we knew she was out big cousin. Prior, to her going into a assistant living facility she'd call me to take her to Publix and a to take care of her bills. During our time she'd talk about family with glee. The same when she was in the assistant living facility, family was her main conversation. There, sometimes the priest would be there as well and we would pray together and listen to gospel music. Sis, your love and memories will forever live in the hearts of the lives you touched with your kind soul. Always and forever your cousin, Gwendolyn Smith

“ Evelyn so affectionally known as "Sis," has been a wonderful auntie, since the day we met her and the Jackson family, I was just a baby, but as I got older; she was kind hearted, loving, giving, funny and treated us as her biological niece. Sis, painted our fingernails, but if our fingernails were dirty, she would; say "get way from here madam" (lol). Sis also would buy that red box of "Argo starch" from, John's Market, she would open the perforated corner of the box, roll down the brown bag and we would crunch away she would only give a small amount in your hand, just enough to make you want some more(lol). Sis would cry with you, is you were sad, laugh with you. I am truly going to miss her, laughter, and her smile, and the nick names she gave us, Brunt(me), Sure'Ca(Dad). Memories that we have will live on. Love you Sis!!! RIP
