“ Aint no words to describe my remorse of not reaching out more I can hear your funny breathing and them bulging eyes filled with charisma. You always joked needing one last baby moms that had to be Spanish and then you was set fa life. You so goofy mannnnn we miss you and just like Joker, Gordo, Oreo and oh so many more you will never ever mf ever be forgotten! You stood on all 10s and left a soldier. I pray for you, your family, and all of us left here with pain from growing up poor in fatherless homes and now losing you. I remember you told me the beef with Joe and how you were gonna murk his p. “ I was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of a dear friend, Fitzroy, with whom I shared my upbringing. It's challenging to be miles away, unable to provide support to our mutual friends and their families. My history with Fitzroy dates back to his middle school years, where he was always the life of the party alongside Peter, Dominic, and the rest of the island crew. Fitzroy was a constant source of support and a willing ear. We engaged in passionate debates, and those memories still resonate. While he was taken from us too soon, I believe God needed an extraordinary angel to watch over us all. Fitzroy, you will never be forgotten. You will reside in our hearts, cherished and loved, and in the countless cherished memories we share. Your legacy continues through your beautiful children. This is not a farewell; it's a "see you later." We love you dearly.

“ My memory of him is of a kind joyful spirit. Any time I saw him, he had a huge genuine smile on his face.. always making us laugh with his jokes and silly faces. And his kindness to all. And for me specifically, whenever I felt down, he would always keep me in his prayers and would reminded me of my kind heart, my inner beauty and how dope I am.. Last thing he said to me was: "Keep applying pressure. You're one of a kind my friend! And always been "that chick " "

“ I dont know, where to start my cuzin Troy. Wow I never in a million years would have thought. I would be having to say rest in peace to you. Since could remember a good times as kid you were there, you, me and, Nicole, Jamari, Priscilla , crystal Denise Dae Dae. From the first day of school to thanksgiving, and Christmas we celebrated together All the kids in the neighborhood Nard, Robert Joe ,James ,Anthony aka Monkey. All of us with no fathers with your mother feeding us the best food in our lives. We talk about life as kids for hours me you Jamari in your room. You always cared for everyone so much. As kids you by far are one of the funniest people I knew. From your random dances to your jokes. From our days in school to our days at the park playing football. Man man Troy When you had your first Son Dorian you was so proud to be father. I could remember your face with Dorian and Georgette with the baby tiger .Shortly after Baby Troy came and baby Troy was a hulk. Always him hitting Dorian and it reminded me of you and Jamari. I would go to your window when couldnt go out to play or sit in the hallway of your building for hours .From our days with Afros to our days with Jerry curls to our dreads days it was to fun. Im so glad i had you in my life Love for my brother Troy is an unbreakable bond that runs deeper than words can express. It's a connection forged in shared childhood memories, laughter, and even occasional disagreements that only strengthen our relationship. He's been my confidant, my partner in mischief, and my pillar of support. Through life's twists and turns, we've stood by each other, offering encouragement and understanding. His successes bring me immense joy, and his challenges fuel my determination to stand beside him. It's a love built on admiration, respect, and an everlasting bond that makes life richer and more meaningful. Thank you Troy your Brother your Big cuzin Dominick Patterson Rest In Paradise

You'll always be remembered for your kindness, authenticity, and your laughter and I will forever be grateful for the trust you placed in me. “ A brother, A friend, A father, A Hero Troy was all of those and more, there are few moments in life where God allows you to experience being in the presence of unforgettable people, that impact your life and leave a mark that cant be erased. From being in elementary school, playing flag football at still water, to getting in fights with local kids, rocking stages in middle school, getting our first official job, graduating high school through our night school program, and starting lives as young men. We had great memories together and i'll never forget my brother Troy. I remember when Troy called me and told me he was going to be a father he was scared and didnt know what was going to happen to him; and I said you got this troy, plus that income tax checks gonna look nice when you add another dependent. He laughed and was so excited about his baby boy coming to the world. After a while Troy kept having kids and I told him Troy slow down you got a whole tribe, and he told me jokingly Im just trying to get that income tax check-up. His laughter, love and kindness were contagious attributes about him that I ll never forget. I was blessed to share experiences with Troy the brother that could connect to anyone and make them feel like the most important person in the world, the friend that would be there no matter what, the father that would give anything and do anything to care for his family, and the hero that would risk his life to travel and provide care for strangers in need of medical attention or treatment. Ill never forget my brother Troy and will always remember every moment that God allowed me to share with my brother Troy. Love you Bro
