(John 14 1-6 KJV) 14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

“ There are many ways to describe my aunt. Some describe her as a true friend, always there to answer when you call. Some describe her as a person ready to make you laugh even when you felt sad. Some saw her as the lady who sold all the snacks, you could always go buy a frozen cup and a bag of chips. Some even describe her as the Mother of Hallandale because she basically babysat everyone and their children, for a fee of course. But to me, my aunt was so much more. She was strong and fearless, even in the death of her son. She was loving, she always would say how much she loved her family. She was direct, she told you how she felt no matter what. And, most importantly she was the daughter of Catherine Bell. Now many may not understand what that means but my family does. My grandmother named my aunt, Gloria, for a reason that I now understand. Gloria means immortal glory, praise, and honor, describing the manifestation of God’s presence. So, if you knew my Aunt, be thankful because you were in the presence of God.
