

Heavyn Mone't Blow-Lawrence

June 15, 2004 - December 25, 2024

Heavyn Mone't Blow-Lawrence passed away tragically on December 25, 2024. She was a student. She was dearly loved by her family and friends and will be sadly missed.

Please keep the family in your thoughts and prayers during this time of bereavement. Additionally, you can support the family by leaving a note of condolence, sharing a memory, or lighting a candle of remembrance.

May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me.
I cannot choose the colors
He weaveth steadily.

Of't times He weaveth sorrow;
And I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper
And I the underside.

Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly

Will God unroll the canvas
And reveal the reason why.

“ I still can't believe this is real.. it's been over 6 months now and I still think of you every chance I get. The laughs we shared, the love we shared was truly truly one of its own. Our arguments our crazy videos will forever remain dear to me. I love you kid and I hope and pray the Lord above has you seated with him. This really messed me up Heavyn.. I wish I could rewind time and save you but God needed you more. I love you always. Thank you, for everything you've given myself and every other life you touched!❤️

“ Heavyn never in a million years I would have thought this is how it would end between me and you. My life have completely changed and it will never be the same especially with out you. It's just unbelievable how it went from seeing your pretty face and pretty eyes everyday till now all I have left is pictures and videos of us to remember for memories. If I was able to make one wish it would be that you were able to come back and get one last hug from you but the reality of it is that your not and that pain cut me deep forever. Heavyn you were my sour patch I'm going to miss your smile and knowing that you were actually happy with me it was a pleasure to do so and also know that you were. I love you 4L and I will always have you in my heart forever Heavyn until we meet again yours truly. 🌹 🌹

“ With a heavy heart, I offer my deepest condolences to my dear friend Donna. From the moment I met Donna, she spoke so lovingly and proudly of her beautiful daughter, Heavyn. The love and devotion Donna had for Heavyn, along with the high expectations and grace she instilled in her, was truly a remarkable thing to witness. I feel so blessed to have had the privilege to see the special bond they shared.

As a mother, I can't even begin to imagine the depth of the grief Donna and her family must be experiencing. I hope we can all find some comfort in knowing that Heavyn will forever be young, beautiful, and now at peace. She was truly a light in this world, far too bright for it to contain.

“ To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. There aren't words that can articulate the separation/ transition of your daughter, when Moses asked the Lord who should he tell pharaoh sent him? God's reply was " tell him that the "I am" sent you! Whatever or whoever you need him to be for you and your family, just know that he is more than that. Our God, your God is the same yesterday, today and forever more, may we learn to act out the love we feel for each other. We love you and will always put that love into action, from your loving sisters of CNT. With a name like Heavyn.....
