“ My condolences and prayers goes out to the Dean family. It has been a blessing to know Ishmail as a fellow Lion, classmate, and friend. He always provided me with encouraging words and motivation. I can still recall when I wanted to change my major and he convinced me not to. He knew I was destined to become a teacher and told me he had a dream that I became a teacher. Due to his words, I managed to graduate from the School of Education with honors. We've always helped one another out. It saddens me that the world has lost a great man.....One thing I know for sure was he was prepared to be with the Lord and gained his wings! I feel honored to have known him. Furthermore, his presence will forever have a profound impact on my life.

“ Ishmail was a fine young man; he was special to everyone, including faculty and staff, in the School of Education, at Florida Memorial University. We were blessed to have known him. “So, you’re one of those first lady’s that sit on the front row with a big hat eh Ms. Williams?” I laughed as his face had that quizzical look, and I knew more questions would be forthcoming. He was just fun to be around. After he graduated from the university he always visit just to check in on us. I know I’m taking up your time, but get used to it I love coming to see you. May his kindness and his dedication to everything he did, and the lives he touched be a lasting example to all who knew him. This world would be such a better place if we had more young men like Ishmail, well-mannered and respectable. My heart aches for Ishmail’s family. There are no words that I can say to comfort you. Please know that I will keep you in my prayers, and you are to be admired for raising such a wonderful son. May your faith, strength, family and friends comfort you every day, and may Ishmail’s soul rest in peace. John 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.
