“ Years prior to my Mother passing she asked that I go with her to a Cousin's funeral I had never met this cousin, whose name was Israel McKinney.... at the funeral I saw Israel, asked him did he know the deceased, he informed me that the deceased was in fact his Father. After this meeting we formed that Cousin bond, he imparted wisdom into me, I will never forget. Rest in Heaven my Cousin Israel....I will miss you. Cousin Valerie Henry Baker

“ My sincere condolences , hugs and prayers to you your family on your loss. May God continue to strengthen you and your family during this time of transition of Israel and I could say that God knows best , He knows how much pain we can handle so right now just hold on to God’s unchanging hand; He got you your love ones and close friends. God has your love one cradled in His arms. Don’t let anyone tell you not to cry because Mary and Martha cried at the tomb of their brother Lazarus in the Bible but so did Jesus and as we know He had the ability to bring life back to Lazarus’s body, but just don’t cry as if there’s no tomorrow because there is. Remember God has a plan that we may not understand but we will understand it better by and by. I’m more than sure your love one if given the offer by God to stay here with his love one’s that’s a hard choice for him to make knowing the love he has for family and friends or be nestled in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Just remember there’s a place in your heart where he can and will always reside whenever you miss him just go to that place and he’ll be there. REMEMBER: EARTH HAS NO SORROW THAT HEAVEN CANNOT HEAL
