“ My Dearest Sister, what a winning smile! Wish we had seen that smile more often---Wish we had talked more and Wish we had laughed more.Remember when a professional photographer snapped this photo of you laughing and splashing about in frothy waves on the shores of Crandon Park Beach? He was smitten with your smileâ€"urged you to consider modeling, but you thought otherwiseâ€"you joined the Air Force and never looked back.Â But Now I look backâ€"you take me backâ€" 45 yearsâ€" and once again I see your youthful zeal---your feisty readiness for life â€"a zeal and readiness we all have --at some point, but lose in ever increasing doses along the way. Â I see you still ---gleefully handing to me the news clipping of your afternoon at the beach. I was happy for you and I too urged you to consider modeling. You were 5â€"m 9â€" - shapely-talented-beautiful - And, as the photographer said, â€œThe camera loved you!â€ And we too loved you! Then, Now and Always!Bidding you a loving, fond farewell my Dear Sister Janiceâ€" Adieu, until we meet again.

“ Wish I could have seen you sooner than I did to talk to you and hug you. I love you.
