“ Dear Major Family,

I am so deeply sorry to hear about the passing of your mother, Janie Elizabeth Major on November 24, 2025. Please accept my sincerest condolences during this extremely difficult time my heart goes out to you and the entire family as you navigate this profound loss, and I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

I will always remember Janie for her kindness and her warm smile. She was a truly special person who brought so much joy and light to those around her, and I feel fortunate to have known her. May you find comfort in the beautiful memories you made together, and may her memory be a blessing.

With all my love from Rose, Derek, Derek Jr. Wright!

“ Janie, As this light shines it carries my love to you. You were the heart of our family, the one who Always brought us together no matter what was going on. Your love, your strength, and the way you held our family close together will live on inside of us. This lit candle also is a reminder that your spirit has not dimmed. You are still in the laughter we share, the memories we share and the way we will keep showing up for one another, just like you always wanted. Your Legacy of Family Unity will not fade, I'll carry it with me, I'll carry you with me. Rest peacefully Sis and please keep watching over us. Love Shell

“ My first thought that comes to mind when thinking of Janie is a warm welcome. We were introduced by a mutual friend shortly after my relocation to Miami. She immediately took me in, literally after that first visit in her backyard. There were rules to follow that rang familiar, very familiar, like my Auntie Amy. Some of the rules were: let God, be patient, text me when you land, call when you get home... I quickly learned that calling from the garage saying I'm parking was not the request... "I said CALL when you get in the house!" For those that know, know.

Her love is Big, Protective, Eternally Expansive and our LOVE for you Janie is Infinite.

My deepest condolences to the entire family and extended village.

Love, Joy White

“ Mrs. Janie made me feel like family from the moment we met. To her children, grandchildren, and everyone who felt her love and strength in their lives, we will remember her together. She left love in all of you. Her light is shining in each of us. Thank you Mrs. Janie for all you gave to us. I ask God to be with us as we miss her.
