

John Henry Cobb

February 11, 1942 - July 28, 2015

John Henry Cobb Sr. was one of seven children born to the late Willie Cobb and Alice Thompson-Cobb on February 11, 1942 in Miami Florida.

John attend Liberty City Elementary School, D.A. Dorsey and Miami Northwestern High school. It was in during high school where he developed a love of music. After high school he played in various music circuits across Dade County. He played the bass guitar and the piano with the Billy Rolle Band. He will be remembered dearly for singing "Rainy Night In Georgia" at the Hampton House.

John worked as an insurance agent for many years. Later in life he began working at the City of Miami Shores. There he was a supervisor and served in this field for 28 years until he retired in 2004.

John enjoyed retirement. On many occasions you would find him fishing, gardening or just sitting among friends expressing what he thought were words of wisdom or the politics of life. He was known for always being able to make others laugh. He was the life of the party and just a joy to be around.

In his life time, John entered into marriage three times. Once with Dorothy Romer, then Alfreda Gray and finally Jennifer Storr. From the first two unions Kim Romer and John Cobb Jr. were produce but has proceeded their father in death.

On July 28th at 7:00 am an angel called John him home to rest for that's where God could take care of him best. He closed his eyes and ascended towards the sky.

He leaves to mourn his children Keith Cobb, Adrienne Cobb (Benny), John Lucas, and Kevin Balmedceda; his siblings Peggy Cobb-McClendon, Willie Cobb Jr, Naomi Cobb and James Cobb; grandchildren Angel Balmedceda, Zain Balmedceda, Silko Balmedceda and Benia Cook great grands, nieces, nephews and a dear friend Eunice Martin. “ We never lose the ones we love to death we only lend them to the world as angels. Now this world has another angel to look out for us.
