“ Dear friend from adolescence. At that time of life we had a great time, us as well as the rest of our friends. My parents would let me go anywhere with you. You acted as a surrogate dad being only one year older than me. We also dance a bunch of "fiestas patronales". I knew I was safe with you. After high school our lives went different ways and different countries, but every once in a while we'd meet again. Thank you for all the dances, protections, tutorials and beggin our chemistry teacher to give me a break! Love you kid! Wait for me in heaven, hope to make it there one day. Have a great time meeting your beautiful momma. Xoxo
