“ Joe lived with me for over 10 years! I cannot find the words to express the joy and laughter that he brought to my life. He was there for me, I was there for him. We had each other's back. Joe was always ready to lend a hand to neighbors, it was important for Joe to receive a daily Blessing for good deeds done. Family, a few good movies/tv shows, and a good meal, made Joe happy, and Joe made me happy!! I am truly going to miss all the good times, and I will never forget your 4th of July, "rain dance". I will never forget your friendship. I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU! I love you Joe Lee!

“ Joe started out as my sister Judy's roommate and soon evolved into part of the family. Joe looked out for Judy as a big brother would. I always felt at ease knowing Joe was there and always had Judy's back.

Joe was a kinder spirit, a thoughtful heart always willing to lend a helping hand.

What set Joe apart from most people was his ongoing positive attitude and his contagious smile.

We will always remember Joe and he will be greatly missed by both Judy and I
