“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. It is not an easy thing for any of us to go through. This bible scripture at Revelation 21: 3Â With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “œLook! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4Â And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.â€ Along with this website at <http://wol.jw.org/en/wol/lv/r1/lp-e/0/22695> has comforted me and and many others. This web site answers a lot of life's biggest questions from the Bible including the loss of our loved one and will we see them again? I hope this brings your family some comfort as it has mine.

“ My deepest and sincerest condolences to the Knowles family. Mrs. Knowles was not only a babysitter during my younger years but also a mother, a teacher, and a dear friend so I know that this is a tough time for you all. I have very fond memories of her love, care, and genuine tenacity for her community and those around her. She will forever hold a very near and dear place and my heart and it is my prayer that the grieving family know that her life and purpose on this earth was fulfilled in the many lives and spirits she touched while she was here. I am praying for healing over you all during this trying time. Sending my love and prayers from Washington, DC, Angel Murphy

“ Mamma, you will truly be missed. We thank God for the life you lived, because of your Christian walk you was able to give agape love to so many. You took us as one of your very own children when we lived in Fort Lauderdale. You have left a legacy and you will forever be missed. To Jojo and Tressa and the entire Knowles family have our sincere condolences on the passing of your Matriarch Mama Josephine Knowles may our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ comfort you during this difficult time.
