In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whether I go ye know, and the way ye know. John 14 1-4

“ This all seems so unreal Auntie!Â God knows and does what is best for us.Â I am very happy knowing that you have earned your wings and will forever rest with the Lord.Â Thank you for all the love you so freely gave to me and all around you.Â Your presence will be missed, but I rejoice in knowing that you no longer suffer with the physical pain you were in, and the pains we have to bear here on earth.

“ I am so grateful that I got to meet you and spend some time with you. You were such a wonderful person and had a heart of gold. My best memory is when I went to visit you really late one night, and I knock on the door, and you were like who is knocking on my door this late... And I said its Mimi, and when I walked in you looked at me and you said ... Girl I was wondering who was knocking on my door this late... I almost didn't open it up... I started cracking up to myself. I was like Lamar your mother is so funny. I'm really going to miss you Ms.Joyce.. wish you could of been here to see your son walk down the aisle. I remember telling Lamar if I have to roll you down in that wheelchair I would. I'm sorry I won't be able to do that, but your memories will always live on, until we meet again. Love Mimi

“ To my mother you taught me so so much and one thing I'll never forget is how you to taught me to always love god. I think that's why I'm not mad he called you home so soon because I know you'll be well taken care of and your in great hands. I will make you proud and always trust in god because without him I would not have made it this far. I love you beyond words & I'm so glad that god blessed me with a mother who was so loving & caring. Love your son Lamar Hough jrÂ
