“ Jude, you always brought so much life and joy whenever you were around. We talked about tasting your cooking that you always bragged about. I regret not creating that memory with you, but I'm thankful for the one's we have. You were there for Ashley, Sidney, and Esther during their hardest time. We will be there for Nadine and your beautiful children. Praying that God's peace that surpasses all understanding will strengthen and comfort all of us who are hurting and missing you. We love you.

“ My cousin was always happy and with smile. He never saw a moment as glass half empty but instead the glass was always half full with so much opportunities to fill it to the rim. Life is so short and we never know when the last time will be the last time so I hope we all share his concept. Love you Jude. Your cuzzo Ashley Marc Cherelus
