May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

There's a very special garden
Where the trees of memory grow
Nurtured by the kindness
And concern that good friends show.
The roots are cherished memories Of good times in the past.
The branches tender promises that souls endure and last.
It's a place of peace and beauty
Where bright new hopes can start

It's memory's lovely garden that soothes the hurting heart.

“ I had not been in contact with Karen for many years although our friendship went back to the early 80s. It's true, real friendships never end. When she learned of my granddaughter's death back in July, she made it her business to find me and my family. That is the loving, caring, thoughtful person she was, always thinking of others. After this, we kept in contact, catching up and creating new memories. The most beautiful thing about our reconnecting is, we had both found the Lord and I am grateful. She loved the Lord and trusted Him. Thank you Jesus for the life of m friend. Rest easy! You have fought the good fight of faith and finished the race. There is a crown laid up for you!! I will see you in the morning. I love you
