September 5, 1959 - December 26, 2025

Kenneth Griffith

September 5, 1959 – December 26, 2025

With love and heartfelt remembrance, we announce the passing of Kenneth Griffith, who was born on September 5, 1959, in Brooklyn, New York, and entered into eternal rest on December 26, 2025. He later made his home in Pembroke Pines, Florida, where he was dearly loved by family and friends.

Kenneth worked as a courier with FedEx, serving with dedication, reliability, and a friendly spirit that brightened the days of those he encountered. His kindness, sense of humor, and steady presence will always be remembered.

To his family and friends: may you find comfort in the memories you shared, strength in the love that surrounds you, and peace in knowing his spirit will forever remain in your hearts.

We invite you to share your thoughts, memories, or light a candle in his honor. Your words of comfort mean so much to his family during this time.

“ A most beautiful homegoing, thank you for Melissa for allowing the service streaming so we all could attend. Our prayers of blessings and grace are with you and family. Kenny was my Fed Ex brother 40 years ago, but it doesn't seem that long. He made me a better man and I'll continue to mentor others in that spirit. As a songwriter I'm feeling "Kenny Keep Smiling" as a title of compassion and God's favor. When it's composed, I'll have one of our Fed Ex brothers send it to you first...Amen

“ Sending love and condolences to the family. Kenny was always kind, warm, and genuinely welcoming, and whenever we got together it was nothing but love and good times. I'll always remember the laughs we shared playing around with our Trini accent, that “eh heh” always brought a smile. You will be missed. Rest well, my Trini bredren. ☐🕊️

“ Kenny, you were definitely one of one. You will certainly be missed, but never forgotten. Your presence, your jokes, THAT smile. For all of the great memories created and love shared, thank you bro. Rest easy now. Love, Monique
