King Solomon Thomas

June 7, 1977 - September 11, 2025

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of King Solomon Thomas, born on June 7, 1977, in Miami, Florida. On September 9, 2025, King transitioned from this life, leaving behind a legacy of strength, love, and resilience.

A proud son of Miami, King built his life with determination and drive, working as a truck driver and paving his own path with hard work and heart. Most of all, he was a devoted husband, loving father, and cherished son, whose greatest joy was his family. His spirit, his laughter, and the love he carried for his family and friends will live on forever.

To the family and friends of King Solomon Thomas, may you find peace, strength, and comfort in the days ahead. May the memories of his love carry you through, and may God's grace surround you during this time of sorrow. Please know that you are not alone — our prayers, love, and support are with you.
