“ Vern and I have been friends since time can remember, before Antione was born. She was the sweetest and dearest of our little group, the ladies of PRIDE in Dania. We have laughed, prayed and traveled together. She was a sister friend that truly was a treasure. Our chain of four has been broken (Rose McCutcheon, Mary Mickels, Laverne Gooden and Angenell Black). We lost a true soldier of the Lord. She is resting until that great getting up morning in her new body. So Antoine, be at peace. Your mother loved you to the upmost and I know you loved her even more.
