Be Comforted By These Words:

Time is filled with swift transition,
None, none on earth unmoved can stand
Build your hopes on things eternal
And then hold onto God's unchanging hand

“ Mr. Martin was my dad's roommate in rehab and was such a nice man. We didn't know him very long but saw him every day for weeks. My sister and I would bring him snacks, my sister even brought ribs for everyone one night. He would give little chuckles when we would have conversations or if we were frustrated with our dad. He was very sweet and kind. His wife is lovely. So sorry to hear he passed. RIP Mr. Martin. Thank you for your kindness!

“ All my love and prayers sent to my family during this time of sadness. In my absence from you I want to say this. I love you Uncle Jr! The visits to you and Auntie Faye when I came back home was always a highlight of my trips. I couldn't and wouldn't come home to Carver Ranches without coming by y'all house. I'm going to miss you and please forgive me for not coming to your homegoing, it's hard enough right now sending this message without the tears streaming down my face. Missing you with all my heart. Give my real dad, your brother Alfred a big hug for me and let him know that I miss him more and more each day. Take care of my brother Ivan until I see you all again on the other side.

“ We met this wonderful man and his beautiful family while my dad was in rehab. He was the best roommate ever! Such a gentle man and so appreciative of everything. He became part of our family during the rehab experience. You are definitely missed and wish we knew you a lot longer. Rest in peace out dear friend. God has received a one in a million Angel!!
