“ Thank you for being the unconditional loving and supportive Uncle that you were. Thank you for treating me like I was your own daughter in the absence of my father (VBH) and grandmother Cherry (ELHT). Thank you for taking me under your wings of protection even if you heard I was in harms way and running to my defense without me telling you myself. Thank you for the tough love talks and guiding me in the right path to keep my head up and to keep going no matter what. Thank you for teaching me that I was a Holloway and Holloways stand solid on two feet no matter what. Thank you for being the doting and loving uncle you were. If only I can hear you say, “Two tears in a bucket mofo it!” If I can hear you say, “Tish Dish!” as you walk up to me to give me a big hug every time you greeted me and see your great beard covered smile, then I could truly say, “Goodbye, Unc.” at peace knowing you’re no longer in pain suffering. I’m the love hard but very stubborn niece that doesn’t like to say, “Goodbye.” It was always too permanent for me; therefore, Uncle Carl, I will just say, “Until we meet again know that I will always and forever love you no matter.” Caring and compassionate for you nieces and nephews as if they were your own children. A- agape love that you showed your entire family no matter what. R- responsibility you took on to guide us, protect us, provide for us and risking your life to serve this country in Vietnam War. L- love that you gave and shared that we will always cherish, and made of feel proud to be a Holloway. I salute you, Unc, always and forever. #21shotsyouwellederserved Your loving niece (Your sister’s, Cherry’s, brat), Tanisha L. Stewart (Tish Holloway)
