“ Dear family and friends of Leroy, I am sorry to hear about your loss. The loss of a love one is very painful and can cause grief and sadness. God’s word the Bible provides us with a hope. In the Bible at Revelation chapter 21 and verse 4 it reassures us that God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. We hold onto these words as promising and encouraging.

“ To the Leroy Brown family. Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted. Matthew 5:4 We each find solace in our own way. Look for comfort in simpler things. It will bring you peace. In your quiet times, remember you have many friends who care. Blessed be...the father of mercies and the God of all comfort. Second Corinthians 1:3 CSB In God's love, there is a place for grief and a deliverance of peace. He will comfort you time after time. You are assured that you are not alone. God's love and mercy be with you. He will be with you for as long as you need him. He will never leave you and will hold you especially close now. We are praying for you and wishing you peace and comfort. Bert and Lois Mack.

“ Even though Leroy was ill for some time, it was hoped that he would recover. His passing appeared to be too soon as we grapple with much grief and sorrow. However, we take solace in knowing that at the end of his life’s journey he was lovingly received in the arms of his Lord and Savior. As his youngest aunt, I had the pleasure of growing up with him in St. Kitts, along with his brother Rudolph and his cousin Paulette. He was always respectful, reserved, genuine, brainy and compassionate. He matured into a diligent adult that made him a remarkable husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. At this time of great loss, my family and I send sincerest condolences especially to his wife (Edris), his only daughter and child (Kimberly “Kim”), his grandchildren, great-grandchildren and all the family and friends of our beloved Leroy. Let us cherish the fond memories that he left and take comfort in knowing that God’s time is always perfect. “HE will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord will wipe away tears from all our faces (Isaiah 25:8).” MAY HE REST IN ETERNAL PEACE. Loving him forever, Arthurlyn (Arty) Brown-Thomas and family
