

Louise Gwendolyn Jenkins

January 20, 1919 - June 13, 2023

Louise Gwendolyn Jenkins was born to Lucius Morris and Helen Royal-Spencer in Comfort Hall, Manchester, Jamaica, West Indies, on January 20, 1919.

She attended school in Comfort Hall, Manchester, and relocated to Kingston during her teenage years to live with her aunt, where she met her husband the late Noelle Jenkins. Their union was blessed with five children, Herbert, Herman, Marjorie, Howard, and Millicent.

She migrated to the USA in 1985 and lived in Florida before moving to Bronx, N.Y., in 1989. She was a devoted Christian, a member of The Church of The Abiding Presence in the Bronx, where she served as an Usher and a member of the Progress Women Organization & Caribbean Fellowship Group.

She enjoyed cooking, baking, and sewing.

She returned to Florida in 2018 and lived in West Palm Beach until she departed this life on June 13, 2023.

Louise Jenkins was preceded in death by her father, Lucius Morris; mother, Helen Spencer; husband, Noelle Jenkins; son, Herbert Jenkins; brothers, Eric Ranglin, Clement Blake, David Spencer, Edgar Spencer, Egbert Spencer, Clarence Morris, and Clifton Morris; sister, Lucille Morris.

She leaves to cherish her memory sons Herman and Howard; daughters Marjorie and Millicent; grandchildren, Malkamitu, Awaaki, Andrew, Naaka, Camille, and Iwinet; brothers Desmond, Gilbert, Eli, and Neville; sisters Violet, Daisy, Blanch, Lillian, and Jean. Many great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Please leave the family a note of condolence, light a candle of remembrance or order a floral remembrance piece.

Be comforted by these words:

Psalm 48:14

"For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death."

“ My Dear Mother Jenkins, may your light continue to shine in our hearts. You were one of the sweetest persons Ive ever known and was so caring to me as a Mother can be. Ill miss our private times together talking and you serving me codfish cakes and dumplings from your kitchen in the Bronx, and me driving you home after church and other events in New York. May your soul soar like an eagle and wings of a dove. I Love You Mother Jenkins. Sincere Condolences to the entire family.

“ Our condolences to you and the family. May the wonderful memories of those Sunday dinners of rice and peas with brown stew chicken, salad to die for..and that breath taking carrot or soursop juice. That decadent black cake and all the wonderful family moments that you all shared with your beloved Mother. May they fill that irreplaceable void until you meet again; In a better place. Mrs. G.L. Jenkins:Rest In Peace.

“ Aunt Lou was and will always be one of my favourite people. She was class and grace personified. I remember when she used to visit Grandma Ellen in Trelawny, she always had a bag of goodies for us kids. We looked forward to her cooking some delicious meals. She was always so kind and we would laugh when she told us jokes in the Queen's English. No patois for Aunt Lou! It was always such fun to have her around. Her kindness and gentle spirit will always be remembered. SIP my beloved Aunt Lou.

“ I remember one Thanksgiving. We were all at Millicents house. It was time for dinner, and Miss Jenkins (ad I called her), descended down the steps as elegant as you can imagine. She was dressed in royal blue. Her jewelry was gold. We all stopped to watch her enter the dining room. After dinner as you all know she could dance. She was teaching me some dance steps. She will surely be missed, but lived a wonderful life.ï,
