Let not let your heart be trouble. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if i go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:1-3 NIV

“ It is with my deepest sympathy that I write this note to the family. Momma may not be here with you now, but she will always be in your heart and mind. I will be praying for your family. as losing a loved one brings loneliness, despair and emptiness. Nevertheless, joy and comfort comes through memories, family and friends. As Christians we know that all must transition from this earthly place to take position with our creator. So I say live so that you may be with her again in a place called heaven. e is
