“ I met McArthur in 1968 he and my then husband Edward (boy) Lewis were best friends thus his wife Joanne and I became best friends we all spent lots of time together. Needless to say Mac was one of the funniest person I had ever met he would have you laughing until you hurt on the inside. He was certainly a joy to be around. R.I.P. Mac....you will be missed. My condolences to Anne, Barbara, Celia and the entire family.

“ Our Deepest Condolences to the Hodges Family. As a neighbor Fat was the kindness, polite, respectful, responsible person you could have known. As he would sit on his porch or inside his Van we as neighbors knew that he was there watching over all of us (we felt good about that). Our brother John even called him Pop. Fat you will be truly miss. The Jewell Family

“ My Memories of Fat -he was my neighbor for years, and before him Mr. & Mrs. Hodges. Fat looked out for everyone in our neighborhood after he retired, he would cook and feed the entire neighborhood, he was just happy feeding anyone, Fat was very caring yet VERY OUTSPOKEN, he told it like it was and didn't care who heard him or disagreed with him, (especially about politics). He often spoke about his children and grandchildren as well as his sisters and brothers, he loved them all. He was always polite; when he would see me he would say "HELLO MATTIE." he was definitely tough yet caring- although he rarely let you see the soft side of him. He was just a Teddy Bear. You are missed and have been for years. REST IN PEACE. GOD called you home to rest.

“ My memory of McArthur .Hodges, is that of a man that I had much respect for. When I was a young girl "Fat" always respected us, he never approached us in ways that were inappropriate. I always wanted to tell him how much I respected him and I got the opportunity a couple of years ago, when I asked my Uncle George to take me to see him. I'm grateful that I was able to give him his flowers while he was living. He appreciated it so much. A BEAUTIFUL AND KIND SOUL!!!!

“ My daddy. He was a handful but his heart was gold. He took in so many and fed even more without looking for anything in return. He just wanted to make sure you don't eat it all up being he was expecting to make sure everyone ate. If you know about that dressing, enough said. I'm truly going to miss my daddy”
