“ My Reflection of Aunt Maggie As I reflect on the life of my Aunt Maggie, I’m first reminded of what she shared, not necessarily material goods or money but LOVE!!! I’m also reminded of my visits to Florida from South Carolina and our talks about Grandma and Grandpa Harry and Rosa Doctor. I recall the love Aunt Maggie showed for her only brother Maybank Doctor and my father during good and bad times. I am reminded of the great Doctor and Drayton Family reunions and the love that was shown towards our matriarch. I will cherish the special moments we shared. With love from your niece Alice Doctor Wearing, Grand nephew Curtis Lamont Doctor and Grand niece Victoria Wearing. Rest in peace.

“ There are really no words to say to bring comfort to an individual after losing a love one. However, if you open up and allow others who love you to help you heal in this journey, It does bring a little comfort knowing someone is there for you in your time of need. Cynthia, you were good to your mother during her transitioning. . I am sorry for your loss. I am here for you and your family if you me.
